After minute note: e-mail received 19:21 on 11/05/2023 as follows;

Good evening

My apologies for the last minute absence as my daughters mum has informed me she is stuck in traffic and will be late.

In terms of an update myself and Lesley Mogford have been re-elected as the Borough councillors for West Flegg the new council has a different makeup now with no overall party in charge.

In terms of an update myself and a colleague will be looking at improving the surface outside the toilets where the concrete path is flooded with the hope of getting this redone in the next few months.

With the new makeup at Great Yarmouth Borough Council and with the council returning to the cabinet system decisions at GYBC should be a lot more quicker and im awaiting the new environment member so that I can finally resolve the missing signs and also get to the bottom with the park improvements.

NCC also has a new leader and will have a new make up of cabinet members so I will be able to update next time in relation to this makeup. I will be doing a walkround with the highways team in the next month so will chase up on any issues including the oputstanding drain works.

My apologies for the last minute notice for absence.

*Kindest regards
Andy Grant*
